

Lower Telephone Service Rates Available For Low-Income Customers You May Qualify for Lifeline

Empire Telephone Corporation offers a program to help our low-income residential customers keep their telephone service. This program is called Lifeline Service and is a government assistance program. If you are a low-income residential customer, you may qualify.

Lifeline gives a monthly credit off your service. Customers have the following choices:

Voice or Bundled Voice Service: Customer will receive a discount of $5.25 off their monthly rate.

OR

Internet Service: A customer may choose to apply the credit on a qualifying internet service, which may be part of a bundle. The customer will receive a discount of $9.25 off their monthly rate.

Here's How to Qualify for Lifeline Service:

• You can get Lifeline if you are in one of these programs:

- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) – (f/k/a Food Stamps)
- Medicaid
- Veteran's Pension or Survivor's Pension Benefit
- Federal Public Housing Assistance

OR

- Your yearly household income is at or below 135% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines.

Here's how to apply for this program:

You have 3 ways to apply for Lifeline:

- Apply online at CheckLifeline.org/lifeline.
- Apply through the mail by filling out the Lifeline Application found at CheckLifeline.org/lifeline.
- Visit Company Name Business Office Monday through Friday, from time, for assistance in applying.

Lifeline service is non-transferrable to another person or household and only eligible consumers may enroll in the program. Lifeline is limited to one discount per household.

For more information on this federal program, please visit the Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) at <https://www.lifelinesupport.org> or contact Empire Telephone Corporation Business Office at 800-338-3300.